

CWF Golf competition in Bossy

On a rather windy and fresh day nine confirmed golfers braved the elements to play in the CWF competition which was held at Bossy Golf Club in France. With an aim of keeping spirits high and handicaps low the scores were impressive and players warmed as the sun eventually made an appearance. The winner was announced as Pam Grant, however after the affects of the champagne and good wine wore off Pam checked the high score and indeed there had been a mix up by the club on the score card the real winner of the day was Karen Saddler!

Some 13 members or guests arrived to try their hand at the golf initiation and there was a demonstration of how to really play golf by Clara Pietri, Swiss Junior Golf Champion and daughter of the event organizer, Manuela.

For the aperitif and dinner we were delighted to welcome further CWF members which made some 30 members to network of good wine and food. (Our thanks to the staff at Bossy!)

The sponsors for the event were Irene Himmelberger and Michele Liechti who graciously sponsored the competition with gifts for the event.

Everyone would like to extend a big thank you to the sponsors and especially to Manuela Pietri who organized the event. We look forward to welcoming a few more golf members next year.
